

Faith Leaders Early Learning Training

The White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for African Americans

October 29, 2015
8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

South Side Bethel Baptist Church
10400 S. San Pedro Street
Los Angeles, CA 90003

Agenda

8:30 – 9:00 a.m. Registration

9:00 – 9:20 a.m. Welcome and Goals for the Day

- David Johns, Executive Director, The White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for African Americans
- Reverend K.W. Tullos, President, National Action Network Los Angeles
- Dr. Marcus Bright, Education for a Better America
- Camille Maben, Executive Director, First 5 California

9:20 – 9:50 a.m. Presenter TBD

An interactive presentation designed to highlight the science behind early learning and development and specific benefits of high-quality programs and support services for African American families

9:50 – 10:30 a.m. Small Panel Discussion: Moderator, David Johns

- Reverend K.W. Tullos, President, National Action Network Los Angeles
- Dr. Marcus Bright, Education for a Better American
- Camille Maben, First 5 California
- Pastor Frederick Howard, South Side Bethel Baptist Church
- TBD

10:30 – 10:40 a.m. Break and Transition Time to Workshops

10:40 – 11:40 a.m. Small Group Workshops

Concurrent sessions designed to provide an opportunity for an in-depth discussion regarding the importance of early learning and development; high-quality programs and support services in the community; and equip faith leaders with the tools necessary to support our goals

Small Group Workshops – Facilitators

- Reverend K.W. Tullos, President, National Action Network Los Angeles
- Dr. Marcus Bright, Education for a Better American
- Pastor Frederick Howard, South Side Bethel Baptist Church
- TBD

11:40 – 11:50 a.m. Break and Transition to Closing Session

11:50 a.m. – Noon Closing Session

Re-convene to highlight significant lessons learned, community resources, and the call to action to increase the number of African American children and families enrolled in high-quality early learning programs and support services

- David Johns, The White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for African Americans
- Reverend K.W. Tullos, President, National Action Network Los Angeles
- TBD

12:00 Noon Adjourn